Re: Manta Industries, Ltd. v. Paul P. Law, et. al., Case No. 16-cv-8308
Response to the Plaintiff's Request to Renew Motion for Sanction to Strike
Answer, Enter Default Against Paul Law and Lourdes Law, And Schedule
Damages Hearing

Dear Judge Preska:

Under your order dated January 29, 2025, the plaintiff's attorney John M. McGovern submitted a letter dated February 6, 2025 promising to submit the proposed Finding of Facts and Conclusion of Law (the "Finding") by February 14, 2025. However, he did not file the Document until April 22, 2025 which is two months and 8 days late. Mr. McGovern did not request an extension of time from this Court to file the Document nor did he seek my consent for the late filing. His submission is too late and the Document should be stricken and ignored.

The request to strike is DENIED. Mr. McGovern emailed his proposed findings to the Court, Mr. Hwang, and Mr. O'Donniley on February 7, 2025. The Court recently requested that Mr. McGovern file it on the docket and he did so. The Clerk of the Court is directed to close dkt. nos. 170 and 171. SO ORDERED.
